

PRIMARY

3-1/2 – 5 YEAR OLDS

June 5 – 9
Rainforest

Lemurs, toucans, and tree frogs are some of the very interesting animals we will study. Our curious learners will discover the layers, the various foods that naturally grow, and the unique climate of the rainforest. Children will eat lunch under our own canopy.

June 12-16
Weather

It's raining, it's pouring! Our little meteorologists will forecast all the various types of weather. Wind, rain, hurricanes, and tornadoes, will make for an audacious week. Students will graph the weekly weather, explore the formations of the clouds, and identify why rainbows occur. Students will take home their own weather wheel.

June 19-23
Literature with Art

Reading and creativity go hand in hand during this week, as our scholars will be exposed to a new book each day. Students will create a project to coincide with each book. A field trip to the Julia Yates Semmes public library will add to this week of literacy.

June 26-30
Shark Week

There won't be any shark attacks, but there will be a full week of fun! Students will learn about the many types of sharks living in the ocean, and their importance to our ecosystem. A special shark snack will make the end of shark week come alive!

July 3-7
Little Scientist
No school July 4

This week of gooey science activities will be sure to engage our scientists with the fundamentals of science. Making silly putty, watching chemical reactions, and erupting our own volcanoes are some of the experiments completed this week.

July 10-14
Hola!

Join us for a fun-filled Spanish immersion week of education about los colores, los numeros, y partes del cuerpo. Students will be emerged in the vast culture and the delicious foods of Mexico. The week will end with a fiesta to celebrate. A scrumptious snack will be made by the students. Bienvenidos!

July 17-21
Force and Motion

Pulleys, blocks, levers, inclines, and wheels are some of the simple machines that the students will be engaged with during this week of force and motion. A field trip to the Witte Museum to work with machines will enhance this week.

July 24-28
Nature Botanists

Our very own Botanists will study nature and go on a scavenger hunt. Students will create a leaf press and rubbings. Exploration in the botany cabinet will help with leaf identification. A trip to the Rainbow Garden Center will conclude this week of Botany. Students will go home with their very own plant and make a decorative flower pot.
